Excerpt from An Address Delivered to the York Mechanics Institution, March, 1832 These countries, rich beyond parallel in a teeming soil which returns an abundant harvest twice every year, all but spontaneously, with a climate ripening and bringing to perfection all the fruits of the earth, with a population as numerous as the sands on the Sea shore, what are they now? The one ground down and trodden under foot by Tartar/ hordes; and the one hundred and seventeen millions of the other legislated for, and governed by, the moral power of twenty. Two thousand Europeans. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
