A native of Red Bank, Mr. Prate has lived almost his entire lifetime in this city, and since reaching manhood has given his earnest support to all measures calculated to advance public welfare. Louis Paul Prate was born in Red Bank, New Jersey, January 5, 1898, the son of Louis and Mary (Zoni) Prate, both deceased. Louis Prate, Sr., was born in Italy and came to this country when a young man, finally settling in this place, where he started a fruit and vegetable business, continuing this enterprise throughout his lifetime. He died in 1918. To Mr. and Mrs. Prate ten children were born, all of whom are living. The education of the boy, Louis P., was obtained in the public schools of his native place, and after terminating his studies at the local high school, he entered his father s business, assisting the elder man until the latter s death, when he took over the business in which he has met with great success, proving himself to be a man of keen business ability. During the World War, Mr. Prate served for seven months with the Engineering Corps, and was honorably discharged at Camp Humphreys, Virginia, in 1919. He is affiliated with the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and is a member of the Roman Catholic church....
