SCRIPTURE OF THE LANDSCAPE: NANTUCKET HAIKU AND OTHER POEMS (PAPERBACK)

Archway Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Nantucket has been called the faraway island, due to its distance from land and its dissimilarity to any other place on Earth. Poet Tom Vorderer has traveled many times to its beautiful shores and over time developed a loving familiarity with an island both majestic and calm. He records his observations via the written word in Scripture of the Landscape. This book is primarily a collection of poems about Nantucket--small time capsules that allow the reader to mentally journey back and experience the richness the island offers over and over. Each poem describes the specific landscape of the place, isolated yet somehow universal in its beauty: Clouds see reflection before fisherman set out the Eagle departs Vorderer s words capture the welcoming feel of this seaside utopia, bringing the reader closer to the heart and soul of Nantucket. In our busy, everyday lives, people sometimes take little time to contemplate the world around them and enjoy the beauty of just being. If even one poem in this collection strikes a chord, consider the experience a success.
