By Francois Dominique

Otis Books - Seismicity Editions, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Fiction. Translated from the French by Samuel Martin. The air becomes stifling. Lightning crashes. We re by the windows, watching the spectacle of the storm. A thick curtain of rain beats down on the flatlands; it advances on us rapidly, and hides the bottom of the garden altogether. The drumming of the rain, the flashes of lightning and the cracks of thunder are joined by a succession of muffled sounds. Mother says it s hail, but on the meadow and the gravel path we can see small objects falling; they aren t hailstones, more like soft oblong things the size of plums or eyes. You might also call them bubbles. They pile up, quivering, but don t burst.
