As such then I considered Miranda Warnar. The high eulogium on her life which I recently saw showed that my judgment was not at fault; that the woman was what the girl promised to be. It is to be hoped that some who were my scholars are present. If so. accept the warm greeting of a friend, and please, send me a line. Accompanying, is what will show some of time s doings. I am now an infirm and physically broken old man; laid aside from all active life, my life-work done. For more than fifty years I was a teacher; now I am more a memory than a reality; I but wait tor the cars. My wife is living, a confirmed invalid. This letter is a greeting and a farewell. You have met to greet each other, and to recall the past. In the long past I have my plae, but my heart is with you in this your jubilee; and my last words to you are, what has been the burden of my life-long teaching, Look. Aloft. FRANKLIN EVERETT. Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. Pickard then read the following letters; Dubuqte, Iowa, Aug. 17, 1885. Prof. John Pickard, Dear Sir: I regret exceedingly that I shall not be able to attend the Semi-Centennial Celebration of Black River Academy, to be holden on the 26th instant. It would afford me great pleasure to meet the friends of...
