Dream of Things, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Wise Men Other Stories: Lessons from the Holidays on Santa, God, Heaven, Death More Fun Stuff from Someone Who Still Has a Lot to Learn is a collection of holiday-related essays that blend humor and poignancy in the tradition of Robert Fulghum, Dave Barry, Bill Bryson, P.J. O'Rourke and other great American humorists. This collection started with Wise Men, says O'Mary. It was a story from my childhood about a poor kid from my old neighborhood and the lesson I learned when we were both cast as wise men in the school play. That story was published in newspapers across the nation and broadcast on National Public Radio's Morning Edition program, and so began a tradition of holiday essays from Mike O'Mary. Over the years, the essays in this collection were read as part of Morning Edition on Northern Illinois Public Radio, and published in the Sunday magazines of the Chicago Tribune, Denver Post, Rocky Mountain News, Baltimore Sun, Cleveland Plain Dealer, Detroit Free Press and elsewhere. Along the way, O'Mary developed a cult following for his holiday stories. O'Mary has a gift for simple, frank exposition of life's most poignant moments, says author Stephen Parrish (The Tavernier Stones). In Wise Men and Other Stories, O'Mary shares that gift with all of us. Enjoy this priceless collection of humorous and thoughtful stories this holiday season -- and for many holidays to come.
