In this exciting collection, Brueggemann finds that when we admit we are dust, we can be liberated. Why Because we are free from acting like God. We are free to choose obedience to the one living, true Sovereign. The idols lose their grip on us and we live faithfully and in authentic joy.' --Ronald J. Allen, Christian Theological Seminary 'According to Walter Brueggemann, the autonomy, secularity, and individualism that characterize modernity have 'exiled' the contemporary believer. Always concerned with the manner in which one is to live in the world, he argues for a subversive imagination similar to that found in the biblical wisdom writings, the Psalms, and the Prophets. One comes away from this book both energized by the vision presented and challenged to make it a reality.' --Dianne Bergant, Catholic Theological Union in Chicago 'There is a reason why Walter Brueggemann remains, for preachers and pastors, the most loved...
