We are drowning in information, products, and societal and familial expectations that are increasing over time. No wonder most of us feel overwhelmed, stressed out, and distracted. We find ourselves living on automatic and in survival mode, working at jobs we don't like, never finding the time to do what we want, and experiencing dissatisfaction, burnout and even depression. Even when you figure out what you want and what your dreams are, you probably find it difficult to focus on your goals. Do you ever read self-improvement books, trying to be happier and healthier, and striving to improve your time management skills? And yet, something is not working. You just don't have enough time, energy and motivation to do it all. How do you stop this cycle? How do you get what you want? How do you start living your life? Hold on. This book will be your definitive guide to taking back your freedom and defining your goals to be able to stay focused, while achieving the life you want. You will learn how to: - Understand your true goals - Eradicate the doubts you have in your mind when it comes to achieving the goals you have set - Eliminate the distractions that are removing your focus from your goals - Stop the rut of procrastination and finally start working toward your ideals - Stay motivated and focused on achieving your goals - Be more effective and productive in your time management skills I feel like I have learned a lot of...
