Scarecrow Press, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 272 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Today s teens are aware of the many benefits of volunteering, and their reasons for wanting to volunteer are as varied as they are. Some must fulfill schools community service requirements; some wish to contribute to their communities. Other teens just want something to do in their free time. Gillespie s sensitivity to teens is heightened by humor and a clean writing style that enlivens the text. Sidebars contain quotes, statistics, true tales from The Dark Side that illustrate difficult situations when working with teens, and her own words of wisdom in the guise of an advice column, Dear All-Knowing Teen Volunteer Guru. The featured library programs contribute examples of promotional flyers, applications, interview questions, evaluations, volunteer handbooks, and other handouts. New to the working world, teen volunteers require extra supervisory effort,...
