

Team Leadership Skills for Teens: Youth Leading Youth

By Mr Brian T. Phelps

Phelps Leadership. Paperback. Condition: New. 244 pages. Dimensions: 10.0in. x 8.0in. x 0.6in. Its well established that youth learn more quickly than adults, and that youth need to be better prepared to meet significant challenges in society. The need to educate youth to be leaders is unlimited. Our country and world needs better prepared youth. Leadership development must start during the formative years of youth, when they're ready and eager to learn. Youth should and can be empowered at an early age to assume more responsibility, accountability, and authority in their life. One of the challenges with providing training and leadership development to youth is the need many companies feel to brand their services and content. Youth need leadership education in a language that they can understand. This book answers that need. The eleven essential competencies described in this book have been presented to youth for more than 40 years. You can present this essential body of knowledge to any teen. These eleven competencies are a foundation that help youth act as a leader. The competencies describe: A specific set of leadership competencies or skills that comprise an integrated framework for acquiring leadership ability based on Tuckmans four stage model of...
